

Light-Pole Banner Art Judging

Light-Pole Art Judging

Overview

- STNC is participating in a citywide effort to promote NCs via light-pole banners.
- 5 unique posters will be distributed over 4 poles each to make 20 banners up and down Foothill Blvd. in Sunland-Tujunga.
- Local artists were asked to submit artwork for STNC's Light-pole Banner contest with a chance of winning $400.

Artwork Medium

- Any medium suitable for banners in portrait format:
 - Photography, Watercolor, Acrylic, Oil Painting, Collage, Pastel, etc.

Themes

- Artists were asked to submit artwork that best represented Sunland-Tujunga. These were the criteria:
 - Unique Neighborhoods
 - History/Heritage
 - Architecture
 - Flora or Fauna

Light-Pole Art Judging

Initial Judging

- Judges selected were local, creative stakeholders: sculptor, art student, college artist, landscape designer, etc.
- To ensure our panel of judges was diverse and inclusive, the 6 judges were:
 - 2 Armenian, 2 Hispanic, 2 Caucasian
 - 3 Females, 3 Males
 - 2 in their 20s, 2 in their 30s, 2 in their 50s
- No judge knew who the artists were.
- Nor did they know names of other judges.

Criteria to Make it into the Semifinals

- Only 1 piece of artwork from a single artist could be entered into the semifinals, and we had tie-breaking procedures.

Entries

- We received 55 entries from 17 geographically qualified artists.
- Each judge selected their top 5 choices. Highest total points became the 12 semifinalists you're about to see.

STNC Board Will Now Pick 5 Winners

- Board members! Grab pen and paper and get ready to take notes. You're about to see the 12 semifinalists' slides!
- After you see all of them, we'll show all of them again for your votes. You'll be asked to select up to 5 pieces which best represent Sunland-Tujunga.
 - Unique Neighborhoods
 - History/Heritage
 - Architecture
 - Flora or Fauna
